TERM AND TERMINATION

This Agreement shall be effective for a term of the Agreement beginning on the Effective Date of the Order and shall continue for a period of the Order (the "Initial Term") and successive Orders that may follow the initial Order.

Upon any material default under this Agreement by either party, the other party shall give written notice of such default to the defaulting party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the client cannot cure the default within the thirty (30) day cure period despite the defaulting party's good faith efforts and diligence, and if the defaulting party commences the cure within the thirty (30) day cure period and thereafter uses good faith efforts and reasonable diligence to cure the default, then the non-defaulting party shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement until the sixtieth (60th) day after delivery of the default notice. In addition to the foregoing, as consideration for the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section, Client shall, upon termination, pay Abacus a termination fee in an amount equal to the Termination Fee if applicable with the terms of the Initial Term.

After the Initial Term of a subscription, the Agreement shall automatically renew for successive periods of the Initial Term (the "Renewal Terms"), unless one party has given at least 30 days written notice to the other party before such term end date that it desires to terminate the Agreement in which event the Agreement shall end at the end of the current Initial Term or Renewal Term, as applicable. The terms of each Renewal Term shall be on the same terms as the preceding term, except that the fee(s) may be increased by 10% but only with written notice is given at least 30 days before the completion of the Initial Term or Renewal Term.

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION ADDENDUM

Intellectual Property

The Client agrees that the Service and Information are and will remain the property of Abacus. The Client does not have any license or right to use any trade or service mark displayed in any part of the Service and Information without the express written permission of Abacus. Abacus’s intellectual property rights in and to the product are protected by the United States copyright and trademark laws, and the Client agrees that its employees are not authorized to reproduce, copy, republish, upload to a third party, or distribute any part of the Service or Information, except under this Agreement. The Client agrees not to use any Information obtained through the Service for any unlawful or unauthorized purpose.

Network Security

Violations of this Agreement include but are not limited to any attempt to avoid user authentication or security of any host, network, or account. This includes accessing content not intended for visitors and logging into an account you are not expressly permitted to access. Attempting to force a denial of service by email bombing, packet spoofing, or ping flooding, among other measures, is strictly prohibited. The client is forbidden to perform any network monitoring, including probing the security of networks or attempting to intercept data not intended for the Client.

Restrictions

The Client must ensure that only users who are a part of their organization and who have authorization can access and use the Service under this Agreement. Such access and use only enable the Client to conduct its business in the normal course. The Client agrees to take all necessary precautions to ensure that no unauthorized persons have access to the product. All authorized persons having access refrain from unauthorized disclosure, duplication, reproduction, or storage on locations accessible by users who do not have authorization.

Payment, Cancellation, Refunds

SUBSCRIPTION

A new Client chooses the 1-, 6- or 12-month subscription. Abacus asks for credit card information to be used for payment at the start of each subscription term. A credit card on file is a prerequisite for preferential pricing.

RENEWAL

At the end of the 1-, 6- or 12-month the subscription will auto-renew based on the Initial Term subscription basis. Abacus will charge the credit card on file unless otherwise notified anytime in the previous month that the Client wishes to cancel.

Abacus may increase the subscription pricing by a maximum of 15% for users once every 12 months, starting at the expiration of the Initial Term or Renewal subscription.

CANCELLATION

A Client on auto-renewal may cancel at any time with no termination fee. A Client on the 6- or 12-month subscription that cancels 30 days or fewer before the expiration date also does not have to pay a termination fee.

A Client that has canceled their subscription (whether yearly or monthly) may purchase it again but will have to begin anew from the 1-, 6- or 12-month subscription.

REFUNDS

Abacus does not give refunds. Not notifying Abacus in advance of a desire to cancel a subscription effectively continues the subscription, and the monthly payment charged automatically to the credit card on file.

See Sections “Information Delivery Schedule” and “Representations and Warranties by Abacus” of the Agreement for details on delivery and warranties.
